A nine year old daughter of Mr. Thomas J. Geary, of Unionville, Centre county, was so seriously burned by her clothes taking fire from the stove, a short time since, as to render her recovery doubtful.

A man giving the name of McClain, stopped at the American House, Tyrone, Friday week, and on the Sunday following disappeared, taking with him two coats, several shirts, and a number of other articlesin all about $50 worth.

John Rumbaugh, a citizen of Mountpleasant township, Westmoreland county, aged some sixty years, hung himself in the barn of Mr. Jacob Boyers, on Thanksgiving evening. He was not married, and had his home with Mr. Boyers. He was in posse sion of means amounting to $12,000 or $15,000. which his aged mother inherits.

Mr. David Arnheim, of Allegheny City. arrived in Altoona from Philadelphia, on Monday morning last, to find himself minus a pocket book containing $1,660 in cash, a certificate of deposit for $600, and a check for $150. He occupied a berth in a sleeping car, and was relieved of his treasure while wrapped in the arms of Morpheus.

The dead body of Armstrong Henderson, freight conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad was found on the track, terribly mangled, near Lawrenceville Station, on Friday night last. The deceased leaves a wife and family at Bolivar, Westmoreland county. He was about forty-eight years of age, and had been in the employ of the railroad company for twelve years.

The Blairsville Press says: "Mr. Samuel Hunter, of Ligonier, hung himself on Tuesday last, while the rest of the family was at dinner. Mr. H. had only been married about six months. The cause of this rash act, our informant says, was attributed to some words that had taken place between his father and himself in regard to his extravaguat expenditure of money."
